

Today: Revised posters and reports.

Next class: Poster presentations, revisions.

1. List the members of your group below. Underline your name.
2. List the three most significant ways in which your revised poster addresses comments from the earlier class.
3. List the three most significant ways in which the poster may be improved.
4. List the three aspects of preparing the poster that were most difficult.
5. Critique of poster and above, by:
In particular, what does a one-minute look at the poster convey?

6. Repeat Question 2 for the the report.

7. Repeat Question 3 for the the report.

8. Repeat Question 4 for the the report.

9. Critique of the report and above, by:

In particular, what does a 3-minute reading of the paper convey? How well is the problem defined? Comment in particular on the related work and graphics, as well as on the suitability of report for computer science peers.

10. Discuss critiques and propose fixes. Implement them soon.